Coastal Community Bank Named SBA Community Lender of the Year in Western Washington

EVERETT, Wash. – Coastal Community Bank was one of two community banks honored for their SBA lending efforts at the SBA Awards Gala in Seattle on May 4, 2016. The SBA recognized Coastal Community Bank and Mountain West Bank for their volume of SBA loans in the 2015 fiscal year. Both banks performed well ahead of their peers.

“We are proud to share the Community Bank award with another true community bank on the Eastside of the state and Northern Idaho,” said Greg Starup, SBA Manager at Coastal Community Bank. “We are impressed with their expertise in the Inland market, while we focus on the greater Puget Sound area.”

Coastal Community Bank led Washington community banks in total dollar volume by approving more than $25.7 million dollars, which funded 52 small business loans in 2015. Mountain West Bank, headquartered in Coeur d’Alene, Idaho, approved 101 SBA loans totaling nearly $23.9 million dollars. When compared with all banks in Washington State, Coastal ranked 7th and Mountain West Bank ranked 3rd overall.

“Our success in SBA Lending speaks to the efforts of our entire bank from lenders to credit teams to all the bankers talking up our SBA presence in the branches and out in the community,” adds Starup. “This award is a testament to our efforts to fight for small businesses in our area.”
