Coastal Community Bank Welcomes Jeff Connor to its Small Business Administration (SBA) Team

EVERETT, Wash. – Coastal Community Bank is pleased to announce Jeff Connor has joined the commercial lending team as SBA Loan Administrator, bringing expertise in the administration and processing of SBA loans and other consumer and commercial lending products.

“Having a specialist like Jeff oversee SBA packaging, processing and servicing is a huge asset to Coastal, especially as we continue to grow our commercial and SBA portfolio,” said Russ Keithley, EVP and Chief Lending Officer. “This new position adds to an already stellar team of seasoned SBA lenders and processors to free up more time for them to focus on customer face-time and personalized service.”

“My banking background involves only community banks and I find they advocate strongest for small businesses, of which I am also a proprietor of,” said Connor. “Utilizing my experience as a banker and small business owner, I feel well equipped to offer advice because I have walked a mile in their shoes.”

Connor has maintained a massage therapy business for over five years while also working for SaviBank as an SBA Coordinator, Credit Analyst and Loan Officer in Burlington, Wash. In his spare time, he serves as President of Border Riders Motorcycle Club and helps with the planning of Upriver Home Tours in Skagit County.
