Coastal Community Bank Welcomes New VP, Business Development Officer at Its Snohomish Branch

EVERETT, Wash. – Coastal Community Bank announced that Melissa Hemrich has joined the bank as Vice President and Business Development Officer for its Snohomish location. With more than fifteen years of banking experience under her belt as well as hundreds of hours of community service, Hemrich brings a wealth of compassion and expertise to her new role at Coastal.

“We were immediately impressed by Melissa’s passion for community giving and commitment to providing excellent customer service,” said Koren Smith, Regional Manager. “It is evident that she cares about the work she does and we know she will be a fantastic addition to the Coastal family.”

Hemrich worked most recently as the Manager and Vice President of the Banking Center at Opus Bank in both the Lake Stevens and Marysville branches. Prior to her time at Opus, she was a Branch Manager at First Heritage Bank in Marysville. Her time spent working and volunteering in the community in Snohomish County is one of the things that initially drew Melissa to Coastal. “Coastal Community Bank is a bright spot in the community and working as a Business Development Officer at its Snohomish branch gives me the opportunity to contribute to that positive impact,” said Hemrich.

Throughout her career Hemrich has been active in the local community. Currently, she serves on the Board of Directors at Sherwood Community Services and the Lake Stevens Lions Club. She is also a volunteer at the Marysville Cooperative Education Program, Everett Youth Hockey, and more.
