Coastal Community Bank Promotes Seth Jones to Relationship Manager, Serving North Snohomish County

EVERETT, Wash. – Coastal Community Bank has moved Seth Jones from his role as a Loan Support Specialist to Relationship Manager, serving the Smokey Point and Marysville business community. Jones has served the Bank for nearly 15 years as a personal banker and loan support specialist in both consumer and commercial lending.

“Coastal is proud to grow its family of bankers, especially when the growth is driven from within and as a reaction to an expanding local economy,” said Russ Keithley, Coastal EVP and Chief Lending Officer. “Seth has both the experience and customer courtesy we like to see in our dedicated team of commercial lenders. As the growth in Puget Sound continues to push northward, we want to make sure we have the resources in place to guide local businesses along their path. Seth is the perfect addition to our strong team in Smokey Point and newest branch in Marysville.”

A local Snohomish graduate, Jones is a strong advocate for community causes and the fight against cancer. You will see him adorned in pink at the Making Strides of Snohomish County event held each year in Everett.
