Coastal Community Bank Welcomes Rhonda Matthes as VP, Business Development Officer at its Evergreen Way Branch

EVERETT, Wash. – Rhonda Matthes joined Coastal Community Bank as a Vice President and Business Development Officer at the Bank’s Evergreen Way Branch after serving both small and large financial institutions for twenty years. Matthes brings a combination of consumer and business banking experience and a passion for helping local organizations and business leaders succeed.

“Rhonda’s commitment to grow a vibrant, healthy community stems from her innate ability to build strong local ties and make connections that help others,” said Koren Smith, Regional Manager. “Customers and community bankers alike are thrilled to have her aboard — her dedication and experience provide the kind of banking that customers want to find and will always follow.”

Matthes worked most recently as a Branch Manager and Director, Business Banking for Opus Bank. Prior to that, she served as a Branch Manager at Whidbey Island Bank, Umpqua Bank and Evergreen Bank. “I was initially drawn to Coastal’s strong sense of community and vibrant, friendly culture,” says Matthes. “There really isn’t anywhere else I would rather be - Coastal has truly become my home.”

Throughout her career Matthes has been active in her local community. Currently, she serves on the board of Lynnwood-based Clothes for Kids and has previously served as a Trustee at the Edmonds Public Schools Foundation. Matthes was also the former Ambassador Chair and Treasurer at the Economic Alliance of Snohomish County and remains heavily involved with the organization today. She maintains membership with the networking based group eWomen Network, which encourages business women to come together to help each other learn, nurture and grow their business.
